

Linda is an experienced Legal Nurse Consultant. Her expertise in this field developed through a broad base of education, clinical nursing experience, mentoring and more than 10 years as a practicing Legal Nurse Consultant

Linda has over 35 years of varied nursing experience. Her clinical experiences include:

- Intensive Care
- Medical-Surgical Nursing
- Dialysis Nursing
- Home care Nursing
- Long-Term Care

The combination of all of these experiences and education in her field equips Linda with the unique ability and competence to provide support for attorneys involved in cases with medical-legal issues.

Linda developed her LNC practice in Massachusetts. Working as an independent practitioner she has been successfully involved with many various medically related cases. As an expert witness Linda is skilled and knowledgeable about the relevant issues in Long-term Care. She has experience testifying in Nursing Home Negligence cases. Linda is knowledgeable and accomplished in a wide range of issues involved in long-term care delivery and operations. Her clinical specialties include:

- Wounds/ Pressure Ulcers
- Falls, Fractures, Accidents
- Identifying and Applying Multidisciplinary standards of care and regulatory requirements.

Linda possesses excellent writing and literature research skills. As a professional in her own field, Linda will collaborate with you to develop a cost effective and winning approach to the medical issue involved with your case.